

LITTEARA PUBLIC SCHOOL

COMPUTER. TAMING THE MOUSE CHAPTER - 4.

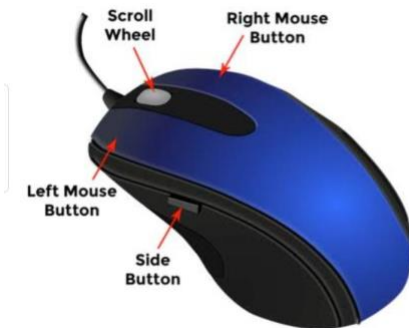

Dear student the small cute things connected with a computer by a long tail is called mouse.

The computer mouse 🐭🐭🐭🐭

- It is small in size.
- It has a tail which is attached to the CPU box.
- You can move it with your hand.

Mouse buttons :-

Left button:- The button on the left side of a mouse is called the left button.it is used for "left click".

Right button :- The button on the right side of a mouse is called the right button.it is used for "right click".

Scroll wheel :- The mouse has a wheel in the centre . This wheel is called the scroll wheel.

Pressing and releasing a mouse button is called clicking.

Mouse pad

The pad on which you keep and move the mouse is called mouse pad.

Mouse functions :-

Single click/ clicking

Single click means pressing the left mouse button and releasing it quickly at once. It is used to select an item on the monitor.

Double click

It means clicking the left mouse button twice quickly . It is used to select and open an item.

Right click

It means pressing the right mouse button and releasing it quickly at once.

Dragging (drag and drop)

It means pressing the left button and moving the mouse till the place where you want to drag the object, while keeping it pressed.

